

Happy 1st Anniversary of the Republic of Bosqunia!

The Republic of Bosqunia is celebrating its first anniversary today with enthusiasm. Despite being a micronation, Bosqunia has quickly developed its own identity and community spirit, and looks to the future with hope.

President of the Republic of Bosqunia, Omer Faruk C, said the following about the anniversary of the Bosqunia People:

«Today, we proudly celebrate the first anniversary of the Republic of Bosqunia. In just one year, we have overcome challenges, proven our determination, and achieved milestones that shape our future. This anniversary is both a tribute to our past and a promise for what lies ahead. Bosqunia will continue to grow stronger and shine in history. Long live the Republic of Bosqunia! Long live the people of Bosqunia!»

Confederation of Turkish Micronations (TMJK) has decided to unilaterally recognize the Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus (TRNC). The statement emphasized that this decision was made "in a spirit of brotherhood and solidarity."

While it is known that most micronations recognize the TRNC, the situation persists in many micronations internationally. The TMJK's decision is being considered a significant step among micronations.

Esteemed Bosqunia citizens, valued friends, and esteemed diplomats,

Today, we are honored to celebrate the first anniversary of the founding of the Republic of Bosqunia. Exactly one year ago, we opened a new chapter in the ideals of freedom, justice, and fraternity.

Although one year may seem short, we have come a long way for Bosqunia. In just our first year, we have achieved many successes that will shape our future. Every step demonstrated Bosqunia's independent will and determination.

Of course, it wasn't easy. We faced challenges and faced seemingly impossible obstacles. But Bosqunia never backed down. Standing tall here today is the clearest proof of this.

This anniversary is not only a celebration of our past, but also an inspiration for our future. We have many more steps to take, many more pages to write. But we know that Bosqunia will grow stronger with each passing day and will have its name etched in golden letters in history.

Long live the Republic of Bosqunia!
Long live the people of Bosqunia!
